Course Description

Principles of Microeconomics provides strong explanations for observed prices and quantities that you see in everyday life, and gives insights as to the tradeoffs people face when making decisions. In this class we will discuss many topics, including comparative advantage, supply and demand, taxes and subsidies, profits and costs, firm and industry structure, competition, government behavior in markets.

Course Textbook

David Shapiro, Daniel MacDonald, and Steven A. Greenlaw. Principles of Microeconomics 3e (2022)

Course Goals

- The overall objective of this course is for you to learn basic economic concepts and more about the economic system in which we live. To this end, upon completion of the course a student will be able to:
 1. describe basic economic concepts such as scarcity and opportunity costs (LG4, LG8)
 2. summarize in writing the key microeconomic concepts contained in an article from a business periodical, e.g., the Wall Street Journal (LG1),
 3. demonstrate a basic knowledge of microeconomics including concepts such as utility maximization, elasticity costs, market structure and labor markets (LG4, LG8),
 4. demonstrate a basic knowledge of international economics including concepts such as comparative advantage, specialization and gains to trade (LG4, LG5, LG8, LG9),
 5. recognize ethical and economic dimensions of government involvement in markets including regulation and the provision of public goods (LG5, LG8), and
 6. analyze current events using economic models such as supply and demand (LG4, LG8)
 - Critical Thinking Overlay: This class involves critical thinking and is designed to satisfy the Critical Thinking overlay component of the UWG core curriculum, as follows: “Students will demonstrate the ability to interpret, analyze, evaluate and explain various kinds of evidence, statements, and arguments.” For this class, students will be required to evaluate firm production decisions, consumer choices, market interventions, specialization, and market structures. Student evaluation on both exams and homework assignments will consist of problems designed to assess student ability to recognize and compare/contrast different economic decisions.
 - Note: A complete list of expected learning goals (LG) for the Economics Department can be found at the department web site http://www.westga.edu/econ/index_12904.php

Grading

Evaluation Policies

- All assignments are closed notes and must be completed in class.
- Make-up Policy:
 - There are no make-ups for missed assignments.
 - Assignments missed due to an excused absence will be replaced with the average of the remaining assignment scores.
 - Excused absences require documentation from a medical professional or relevant university official.
- Academic Integrity:
 - Any suspected academic dishonesty will result in an immediate zero on the assignment.
 - A second instance will result in immediate course failure and referral for further disciplinary action.

Quizzes

$$Quizzes = 1.25 \times \sum_{q=1}^{25} Quiz_q$$

where $0 \leq Quiz \leq 1$.

Exams

$$Exams = \begin{cases} 15 \times \sum_{e=1}^5 Exam_e & \text{if } Exam_5 \leq 0.6, \\ 15 \times \left(\sum_{e=1}^4 Exam_e - \min(Exam_e) \right) + 30 \times Exam_5 & \text{if } Exam_5 > 0.6. \end{cases}$$ where $0 \leq Exam \leq 1$.

Exam Curves

- I write exams to be challenging, so I apply a consistent curve to keep the grading scale fair and to avoid “extra credit-style” outcomes where top scores vastly exceed 100.
 - Let g denote a student’s raw exam score out of 100 points.
 - A constant bonus c (in points) is added to every raw score where $c \geq 0$ is the smallest integer until the mean final grade satisfies $\bar{f} \geq 75$.

$$f(g) = \frac{c}{2} + \frac{g+c}{100} \times \left(100 - \frac{c}{2} \right) \leq 100$$

Grade Scale

Grade	Range
A	[90,100+)
B	[80, 90)
C	[70, 80)
D	[60, 70)
F	[0, 60)

Artificial Intelligence Use Policy

Generative Artificial Intelligence (Gen AI) is not allowed in any coursework. All coursework must be original and created for this course. Use of Gen AI will be treated as plagiarism. Any violations of this guideline will be subject to the academic and disciplinary policies listed in the UWG Honor Code (see: Student Handbook).

Roster Verification

In order to be counted as having attended class during the roster verification period, you must complete at least one quiz by September 1, 2026. If I mark you as not-attending for a course, you will receive a 'W' grade.

Changes to the Syllabus

I reserve the right to modify the course schedule or content as necessary to support the learning objectives of the class. Any such changes will be communicated in advance and will only be made in ways that are beneficial to students, such as reducing the scope of material covered or delaying assignment due dates.
